

Mule Deer Critical Winter range and Elk Winter Concentration:

- Conduct drilling and construction activity outside of the time from December 1 to April 15.
- Restrict post development activity and well visitations to the hours of 10:00 am to 3:00 pm during the winter months from December 1 to April 15.
- Utilize practices that minimize mortality from vehicle collisions on roadways.
- Fencing and netting of pits during the drilling phase shall be implemented to prevent wildlife from gaining access to the pits
- Reclaim mule deer and elk habitats with native shrubs, forbs and grasses