Jacob,

COGCC has assigned spill number 2231448 and related this spill to Facility ID 427188, which is the Ball Ranch Tank Battery. Based on the information provided in the spill report, No Further Action is required at this time and Spill 2231448 has been resolved. However, if future conditions at the site indicate the presences of contamination in excess of Table 910-1 Standards for soil or ground water as result of this spill, then additional investigation or remediation may be required.

Please contact me with any questions regarding this release.

Regards,

Rick Allison, P.G.
