

Speakman A Pad Expansion
Attachment F
Current Land Use

Historically this land has been used for grazing of livestock, access to oil & gas locations on nearby properties and used by the surface owner for storage of vehicles, utility trailers, and other equipment. This land will continue to be used for these purposes. Considering the volume of traffic and existing conditions of the land, it is unlikely that the proposed construction will have additional impacts to wildlife or other natural resources in the area.