Comments:

Please allow an extension to rule requirements in Rule 1003 and Rule 1004 for final reclamation of location site on the above well. This location was built to accomodate a drilling rig for the above well and when the well was killed and not drilled the location was used to store production tanks and other associated equipment needed to build future locations that have been permitted to drill by COGCC. Noble will move all equipment from this location by 3/1/2013 and place this well on the list for reclamation and seeding in the fall. Steve Wells the surface owner has granted approval to use his property for storage and the storage yard that these tanks will be moved to has been approved by Weld County.
