

We get injection gas from the well before sales. Sales is actual gas sold. Injection gas being measured at injection meter is used from well on pad and not from a second source.

