Alex,

As discussed previously, the plan was to sample at the Lone Pine Site tomorrow for CM Production. Given the forecast for tonight and tomorrow, we are not going to take the risk of travelling tomorrow. We will plan on sampling by the end of the week, and will keep you updated on when we will be out there sampling. It is looking more like Wednesday or Thursday, weather permitting. I will let you know, as soon as a decision is made.

Cheers,
