

photo 1: Facing east towards the access road standing at county road 63.

photo 2: Cattle guard is not filled with sediment and no maintenance issues were noticed.

photo 3: Facing east along the access road.

photo 4: View of the road base material along the access road.

photo 5: Facing east showing surrounding pasture vegetation along the access road.

photo 6: Facing northeast from the access road toward the vegetated drainage ditch which is directed out into the pasture.

photo 7: Facing east along the access road.

photo 8: Facing east along the access road.

photo 9: Facing east toward the point where access road turns north to the location. Red line indicates approximate point where reclamation work appears to begin.

photo 10: Facing back towards the west at the access road. Red line indicates approximate point where reclamation work appears to begin.

photo 11: Facing north along the former access road. Access road turns to the north at this point.

photo 12: It appears that the access road was ripped and decompacted starting at this point which goes north toward the location.

photo 13: Facing north along the former access road.

photo 14: Noticed vegetation germination which appears to be an undesirable species (Kochia).

photo 15: Facing north toward the location.

photo 16: Center of the location facing northeast. Did not notice vegetation germination in this area.

photo 17: Noticed weed debris (Kochia) with Kochia beginning to germinate under this debris.

photo 18: Northwest corner of the location facing southeast toward the location.

photo 19: Northwest corner of the location facing south toward the location.

photo 20: Facing north toward the surrounding undisturbed pasture.