Re: Bond #92-763296
Leon W. Luksa

Dear Mr. New:

If a new bond is filed by L and M Ventures, the present bond can be released. It is my understanding that Leon W. Luksa and L and M Ventures are one and the same.

The bond remains in effect until the well is plugged regardless if it is a producing well or not. If a company can show financial responsibility, the bond could be released for a producing well.

Very truly yours,
OIL AND GAS CONSERVATION COMMISSION
