Miguel,

Thank you for using the COGCC Online Tool to file your complaint. Your information has been entered into document number 200447282.

COGCC does not have authority over mineral leases, because they are civil agreements and not regulated by COGCC rules. Unfortunately, COGCC staff may not assist you with your lease offer concerns or HOA rules.

You may wish to obtain the services of an attorney to assist you or you may reach out to the National Association of Royalty Owners (NARO) for assistance ( www.naro-us.org).

COGCC did not identify any instances on non-compliance with COGCC rules and will not issue a notice of alleged violation. Accordingly, COGCC has closed your complaint.

Regards,

Megan Adamczyk

Type of Complaint (Click all that apply)	Notice Letters lease forms
Location of Concern	i received a package of lease agreement forms from aspired energy, inc in January 2019, which i objected despite of contacting both the state and aspired as well. to get more information, i considered this whole deal somewhat fishy. i also contacted the HOA in this regard, and found them not supportive. The HOA claim we are NOT to engage business in which case this would be one. our guidelines does not support it.furthermore they state if there would be any suit against in this case the operator, Aspired, i could be included in it. therefore, please take notice that i have no interest in this whole ordeal. i also received another package from Wellborn Sullivan Meck & Trooley, PC who i believe they represent Axis Exploration LLC,(aplicant).

Detailed description of the issue or issues.	i believe aspired wants me to lease my mineral rights to them, i have little knowledge on the outcome, but if there was any issues of polution in the water, gas or oil leaks, or simple the presence of an oil pump, i would be very concern; the fact that we are not to do business in our community, the chances of having part in a law suit, I rather stay out. thank you.
Do you know who the oil and gas company is? If so, please specify and if you contacted them already please indicate that and who you talked with.	Aspired were the people who sent the lease forms, i did talk to them; then around March, received package from wellborn Sullivan Meck and Trooley PC, i also did talk to them.
Well or facility name and number (If known).	unknown
