Gentlemen:

Thank you for furnishing the information about the perforations and producing zones in this well. It appears the "O" zone was plugged off with a bridge plug prior to perforating the "J". Please note the plug-back total depth of 5200 on the enclosed Form 5. Tipperary wasn't very clear as to what work was done.

Do you know if there is a plug at 5200, or it has been removed, or was never set in the first place?

Thanks for your help.

Very Truly Yours,

Dennis R. Bicknell
