Hi Peter,

No problem. Thanks for the notification. I won't be able to make it but someone will most likely be out the from KPK to join you.

Thanks,
Max

Max, I plan to visit and map the site tomorrow morning. I do not plan to collect any samples of soil during the visit. I will likely be there by 7:30am and will enter by the same route that was suggested for the 30 June soils sampling we did. You are certainly welcome to come by if you wish.

Peter
