Mr. Trujillo,

This location does not belong to Nonsuch Natural Gas, Inc. I have been told that the location owner does intend to do a full reclamation on this location in the near to intermediate time frame.

Good Morning Mr. Lee,

Could you provide some more information as to who's Location and equipment this does belong to? Location records and signage on the tanks/equipment show Nonsuch as the owner.

Thank you

This is a Terra Production location. The equipment is owned by Nonsuch. Terra plans to reclaim this location sometime next year. When this location is reclaimed all of the Nonsuch equipment will be removed.

Thank you Mr. Lee,

COGCC will need to do additional review regarding the ownership of the Location.

Regarding inspection #696201797, the corrective action requiring secondary containment to comply with Rule 906.d.(1) at Nonsuch's tank will remain applicable.
