

An aerial photograph of a dark, textured surface, possibly a road or a field, with a red location pin and the text '125-08418' overlaid. The surface is covered in numerous small, dark spots and scratches, giving it a rough, weathered appearance. The red pin is located in the center of the image, pointing to a specific spot on the surface. The text '125-08418' is written in white, bold, sans-serif font, positioned to the right of the pin.
