Gentlemen:

We are writing to you regarding a "bond of Oil and Gas Operator for Drilling Operations on Patented Land," furnished by Nebraska Drillers, Inc. of Grand Island, Nebraska and by the Seaboard Surety Company as surety.

This bond was dated June 18, 1952.

Nebraska Driller, Inc. now tell us that the bond is no longer needed, and that it should be cancelled.

We enclose you a postage guaranteed envelope and will appreciate it if you will please advise us whether you will consider the bond as being cancelled as of June 18, 1953. If that date is not satisfactory, what date will you consider as being the cancellation date.

Yours truly,

T. F. HORTON
President
