Dear Mr. Yoast:

We have contacted you several times recently regarding the disposition of your No. 1 Yoast-Cannon well located in the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ , Sec. 10, T-6N, R-85W, Routt County, Colorado, and as yet have heard nothing from you.

It is imperative that we keep track of these wells, and we request that you advise us of the total depth, file a completion report, if necessary, and indicate your future plans for this well.

We hesitate to mention the penalty for violation of our rules and regulations, but when an operator consistently ignores our request it becomes necessary for us to advise him that our law provides for a penalty of $1,000 for each violation and $1,000 for each day that such violation continues.

Your early response will be anticipated.

Very truly yours,

OIL AND GAS CONSERVATION COMMISSION
