Photo 3: Photos taken from along the access road. Limited inspection due to snow cover, however, unable to find evidence that stormwater and erosion control measures to stabilize, minimize erosion, manage runoff have been implemented. Boulders have been placed along sections of the road. Operator's email communication to staff indicated that that the access road will be reconstructed to redirect runoff, and that a water bar (berm) will be installed across the entrance to limit runoff from Trail Ridge Road; unable to find evidence that this work has been performed.
