Please provide as much detail as possible. It is important to narrow down the issue(s).

Halliburton is fracking the well site and the nightly noise is overwhelming. The generators are very loud to the point windows cannot be left open at night because of the constant noise. This noise was suppose to be quieter that the last ti.e we went through this according to Verdad Resources. This is an ongoing issue with this site. If it's not backup alarms its, generator noises, or some other noise to cause issues for the property owners near the site. Verdad Resources and Halliburton do not seem to care that we cannot sleep, or enjoy our properties because overwhelming, constant noise.
