Dear Steve:

As per our conversation earlier this week, Basin's application for an injection well is located in an area considered a severe geologic hazard. Due to this fact, Weld County Planning will be referring Basin's application to the Colorado Geological Survey for their review and comment.

I spoke on the phone with Jeff Hines of the Colorado Geological Survey, who indicated we should collect a standard fee of $380. He did indicate that additional fees and charges may be required, depending on the situation. Therefore, we will need a check made out to the Colorado Geological Survey in the amount of $380 before your application will be considered complete.

If you have any further questions, please call or write.

Sincerely,

Greg Thompson
