Also attached is a plat of the proposed location and drilling equipment as it will be placed on the drill site. Rig mast in a horizontal position will face west.

Mr. Adrian Neisius of the Bureau of Land Management, Kremmling, Colorado, has been contacted and the building of this location and access roads has been discussed with him by our Drilling Engineer, Mr. Warren Goss, and with the dirt contractor who will do the dirt work.

Following is the 12-point development plan for surface use as required by the Geological Survey, Conservation Division:
